

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION
PRELIMINARY MEETINGS.
STEWART COUNTY.
At a meeting of a portion of the democratic party of Stewart, held at Dover, on Tuesday the 30th of April, on motion of S. Graham, Esq., J. H. McElish, Esq., was called to the chair, and W. Daniel requested to act as Secretary. And the object of the meeting having been explained, the chairman appointed A. Gilliam, W. Cherry and W. Daniel a committee to report resolutions to the meeting, which, as follows, were adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention do hereby approve of the nomination of the democratic party of Stewart for the office of Governor of the State of Tennessee. A. J. Gilliam, W. Cherry and W. Daniel a committee to report resolutions to the meeting, which, as follows, were adopted:

THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL throws up a good deal of bile because Gen. PIERCE, in his inaugural, said that he had "no rewards to bestow, no remunerations to remember, and no personal wishes to consult in selections for official stations."

The Journal construes this as a declaration against the prospective system, and then proceeds to abuse the President for cutting off whig heads. Now, the Journal must be woefully ignorant of the meaning of language, or badly in want of something to grumble over. If it were not uncharitable, we would charge it with being in both predicaments.

It is blind to everything but its own billions propensity to vilify and abuse. If the President didn't remove a single whig from office, the Journal would abuse him like a pick-pocket, and then, for a wonder, it would be right. But as he proceeds to cut off heads, it turns up its eyes in apparent horror, but with secret delight; for thus it is furnished with a choice theme for its profligate billingsgate. The fall of a sparrow is not unobserved, nor is that of a whig official. PIERCE sees each head as it rolls from the guillotine, and hears every groan from his butchered brethren. He is their avenger. Brave man! His ink will flow as freely as their blood, and his abuse will be equal to their sufferings.

But the Journal perverts the President's language in construing it as it does. He evidently meant the declaration quoted for his own party, and designed it as an assurance to democrats that, among them, he had "no rewards to bestow, no remunerations to remember, and no personal wishes to consult in selections for official stations." In the same paragraph of his inaugural, he tells the whigs very plainly that they must prepare to "walk the plank." He says: "No reasonable man of any party will expect the administration to be so regardless of its responsibility, and of the obvious elements of success, as to retain persons known to be under the influence of political hostility and partisan prejudice, in positions which will require, not only severe labor, but cordial cooperation."

This is plain talk, and we commend it to the Journal and its fellows, whenever they fancy that the new President has pledged himself against removals from office. If this doesn't satisfy them, we will refer them to the list of appointments which we publish every now and then.

TELEGRAPHIC.
The Telegraph announces, this morning, that Mr. DICKERSON has declined the appointment offered him by the President. GREEN S. BRUNSON has, therefore, been nominated and confirmed for Collector of the Port of New York.

The telegraph also announces that Mr. SHELLEY has declined the mission to Central America, and will be proposed by his friends to fill the vacancy occasioned by SOUTHERN'S appointment. The reporter is also kind enough to tell us that the Republic has a "sharp article" on the "bargain or swap," for which we return him our thanks.

The rumor, the other day, was that CROMBIE and DONNIX were about to change positions in the cabinet. Now it is that Mr. MANOR is about to retire. We imagine there is no truth in these reports.

Hon. JOHN BELL returned to this city on Thursday last. Mr. BELL's term of service in the U. S. Senate expired on the 4th of March.

The Memphis Enquirer and Advertiser of the 6th, announce the return of Hon. JAMES C. JOHNS to that city, in improved health.

Gov. A. V. BROWN returned home from Washington on Saturday evening.

We have received the proceedings of a spirited meeting at Greenville, on the 4th inst., which recommended Hon. ANDREW JOHNSON as the democratic candidate for Governor. We will publish the proceedings to-morrow.

We see it stated in some of our exchanges that Hon. GEO. W. JOHNS, of this State, was sent to Havana to administer the oath of office to Vice President KNOX. This is a mistake. The oath was administered to Mr. KNOX on the 4th of March, by Deputy Consul ROBERT, before Mr. JOHNS left Washington. Mr. JOHNS visited Havana for his health, and at the same time was the bearer of despatches to the American Consul.

SUCCESSION OF AN ARMY OFFICER.—Brev. Maj. HAYNAY, of the 1st Artillery, U. S. A., committed suicide in New York city, on the 31st ult., by cutting his throat with a razor. He had just returned from a three years absence on duty in Oregon and California.

The St. Louis News of the 31st ult. states that a large number of the late immigration of English and Welsh Mormons recently arrived at that place en route for Utah, refuse to proceed any further, and that they only professed Mormonism as a trick to get a cheap passage to the U. States, their transportation hitherto having been obtained at a much lower rate than it would otherwise have cost them by the arrangements made by the Mormon agent of immigration. "A number who arrived yesterday," says the News, "and the day previous, took up their quarters in the city, or shipped themselves and families on boats bound for the Upper Mississippi, bidding adieu to their professed religion and its especial agent."

Arch-Bishop HUGHES, it is said, will soon leave for Rome, there to receive the cardinal's hat. The Rt. Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, and the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Philadelphia, are to officiate in his stead during his absence; which may be prolonged to a twelvemonth.

JENNY LIND—The Boston Post is assured by a gentleman, recently from London, who received a letter from the nightingale but a few days before his departure, that she does not intend appearing again in opera; that she is a great admirer of America, and may possibly visit it again, but has not yet determined when; and finally, that her relations with her husband are very opposite of newspaper rumors—an unpleasant word having never been exchanged between them since the marriage.

A VETERAN POSTMASTER.—John McRAE, Esquire, Postmaster of Fayetteville, N. C., has declined a re-appointment. He has been connected with the office for the long period of fifty-two years, seventeen years as clerk under his father, the late Daniel McRAE, and thirty-five years as Postmaster.

It is now presumed, says the Louisville Courier, that the various mail robberies committed between here and Nashville, Tenn., have all been perpetrated by the U. S. Mail Agent, Jno. F. LEAVY.

On a trial charging the defendant with the crime of rape, recently tried in Western Indiana, the judge, in his charge to the jury, told them, if they found the defendant guilty, they must say in their verdict how long he must serve in the Legislature.

"THE DEMOCRATIC HERALD."—Our friend, J. J. McDaniel, Esq., of this excellent paper, is at present in Nashville. He will be here several days, and will probably call upon some of our merchants on business connected with his journal. The "Democratic Herald," is a capital paper—published in the good old county of Maury, where it circulates largely, as well as in the adjoining counties—and furnishes an excellent medium for advertising in a locality that trades largely with Nashville. We commend Mac and his paper to our advertising friends.

HORRIBLE MUTILATION.—CHAS. KENNEDY, a respectable citizen of Pittsburg, Pa., while attempting, a few days since, to leap upon the platform of a coal train on the Pennsylvania railroad, miscalculated the distance and fell on the track, the four cars passing over his body, cutting it diagonally from his shoulders to his loins, and completely separating one portion from the other. The heart was thrown out, and the lower part of the body was cut literally to pieces.

We have received No. 2, of the Southern Eclectic, a new publication commenced at Augusta, Ga., by J. H. FITZES, and composed chiefly of selections from the best Journals of Europe. Terms, $3 00 a year in advance.

TRABON, an officer of the New York assembly, has been sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail during the remainder of the session for having attempted to bribe a member of the House and secure his influence for a certain measure.

A Sacramento (Cal.) paper gives an account of a little girl, that was kicked over the left eye by a mule. The foot of the mule was shod, and the blow so violent as to force the ball of the eye out upon the cheek. A physician, however, succeeded in placing it again in the socket.

The following particulars of the death of General HAYNAY, we take from the London Herald of the 10th, under date of Vienna, March 14th: General Haynay's death (already announced) was quite unexpected. After his Italian journey, he appeared in excellent health. On Saturday he joined the other general officers at the Ballaria, and attracted the particular notice of his Majesty, who addressed him on passing with my salutation, General. (Bravo, Sir, Herr General) Yesterday he was at the Mercantile Hotel, as usual. At midnight he returned to Munsch's Hotel, where he was lodging, and soon retired to rest. At half past one he summoned his valet, and directed him to fetch his trunk and his hat, as he felt unwell. When the man returned he found his master gasping for breath; in short, in the agonies of death. Medical assistance was immediately called in, and an attempt to take blood from the General's arm was made, but in vain; General Haynay had ceased to be.

TRAGEDY IN OHIO.—A most heart-rending circumstance occurred in the vicinity of Bowling Green, Ohio, a few days since. A correspondent says:

"The circumstances, as far as I have been able to learn them, are as follows: A man by the name of Valentine Sage, had been about ten days attending a protracted religious meeting, in which he took a deep interest. On Tuesday evening last, from the exceeding earnestness with which he prayed in the public congregation, some of his friends feared that his reason was about to be again overthrown. He had once been insane for a short time, in consequence of excessive grief at the loss of a son. No symptom of insanity was however observed, but early on the next morning he went into the house of a neighbor and commenced singing, after which he prayed, and particularly for the wife of the man in whose house he was, that she might have grace to endure the great trials that awaited her, &c.

Having then informed his friend that he had been commanded by the Lord to kill him, and admonished him to prepare for death on that day, he went home. Soon afterwards he seized one of his children by the feet, and dashed her brains out on a log. Throwing the child on the ground he exclaimed, 'That child now is happy!' His wife, who had just been confined, now jumped from the bed and attempted to make her escape. She was however overtaken by her husband, and killed to the ground. Happily she was not much injured. By this time several of his neighbors had collected, and the unhappy man was, with much difficulty, overpowered and conveyed for security to the jail in Perryburg. He is now a raving maniac, but a perfect knave, and what he has covered up, and says his child is in heaven. One could almost wish that his reason may never return while he lives, that he may be spared the anguish which would then overwhelm him. Before this he has been kind to his family, and latterly had been altogether exemplary in his general conduct."

G. H. Ritchie, son of Thomas Ritchie, late editor of the Washington Union, and William G. Marcy, son of the Secretary of State, are nominated as pursers in the navy.

We learn that Mr. J. Hill, five miles from Athens, has been stabled, together with four horses, gears and provender, destroyed by fire on the night of the 30th ult., the work of incendiaries. Two persons, George Carroll and an old woman named Hambrick, have been committed to the jail at this place, charged with the crime.—Athens Post.

For Nashville.—The Kentucky No. 2, in charge of Capt. Bedford, a very early arrival, starts for Nashville this morning at 10 o'clock.—Louisville Courier, 9th.

The Logan is advertised for Nashville this evening. The trade with that city is increasing.—Id.

THE CITY.
We would invite the attention of the reader to the card of Dr. MADDIN in to-day's Union.—Dr. M. has recently arrived in Nashville, and intends locating here permanently. He has formerly resided in Alabama, where he has followed his profession many years. He brings with him from that State letters from gentlemen of the highest respectability. They all speak of him as a physician of skill and standing, and a gentleman of high moral worth.

PUTNAM FOR APRIL.—Messrs. W. T. BERRY & Co. have just received a second supply of this valuable monthly. They will accept our acknowledgments for a copy.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. P. P. PECK, Esq., at W. H. GORDON & Co's, is the agent.

On Tuesday evening, 5th inst., at the residence of Gen. Moore, in Lincoln county, by the Rev. Mr. Cowan, Mr. JOEL R. SMITH, formerly of Nashville, to Miss BETTIE, daughter of the late Gov. Of Arkansas.

Dead.—At his residence, near this city, on Sunday night—10 o'clock.—Mr. MOSES NORVELL.

This sudden and unexpected death casts a shade of gloom over many sorrowing hearts—near relatives and devoted friends. In his life he exhibited all the virtues which adorn human nature. He was a kind and affectionate father, a true friend, and an humble and devoted Christian. Those who knew him best sympathize most with the bereaved family. The deceased was, for many years, a member of the Christian Church.

The funeral will take place this morning, at ten o'clock, at the Christian Church. Divine service by Rev. J. B. FENNELL.
